

Paul Moberg, PhD Clinical Psychologist

Titles

Clinical Director, Neuropsychology

Professor of Neuropsychology in Psychiatry at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Professor of Neuropsychology in Otorhinolaryngology: Head and Neck Surgery

Specialty

Educational Background

Graduate School: Chicago Medical School

Residency: University of Florida Health System - Shands

Fellowship: University of Florida Health System - Shands

Memberships

Alzheimer's Disease Association, National American Academy of Clinical Neuropsychology, National American Board of Clinical Neuropsychology, National American Psychological Association (APA), National Association of Chemoreception Sciences, International Expert Panel Member Judge, Department of Rehabilitation Medicine Research Day, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, June 14th, 2002., Local Expert Panel Member Judge, Department of Rehabilitation Medicine, 6th Annual Research Day, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, 2006, Local Institutional National Service Award (INSA)-Training in the Neurobiology of Otorhinolaryngology, National Institute on Deafness and Other Communicative Disorders (NIDCD), National

Practice Locations

Penn Psychiatry

Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania
10 Gates
3400 Spruce Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104
866-301-4PBH (4724)

A facility of the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Moberg is a Penn Medicine employed physician.