

Peter F. Cronholm, MD Physician

Titles

Associate Professor of Family Medicine and Community Health at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Specialty

Board Certifications

Hospice and Palliative Medicine, 2012
Family Medicine, 2001

Educational Background

Medical School: Temple University School of Medicine

Residency: Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Memberships

Academy on Violence and Abuse, National American Academy of Family Physicians, National Decision, Risk, and Management Sciences (DRMS) program at the National Science Foundation's (NSF) Division of Social and Economic Sciences, National Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS)/National Institutes of Health (NIH), Center for Scientific Review, National

In January 2014, the Obama Administration announced the Promise Zone initiative as a new effort to support neighborhoods that lack resources and face challenges associated with persistent poverty. This federal initiative targets a small geographic area in select urban, rural, and tribal communities, giving local partners the support and resources they need to work together toward revitalization. Local Institute for Safe Families - incorporated as a 501(c)(3), non-profit organization in 2001 after starting its nationally acclaimed family violence prevention initiative under the auspices of Physicians for Social Responsibility in the early nineties. The mission of ISF is to prevent intimate and family violence and to promote the health and well being of each member of the family and the community in which they live. ISF also advocates for

Practice Locations

Penn Family Medicine and Community Health

Penn Medicine University City
9th Floor
3737 Market Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104
800-789-7366 (PENN)

A facility of Penn
Presbyterian Medical Center